

PAUL GARROD

WEB DEVELOPER

As a self taught web developer, I'm a tenacious self starter. Dedicated to the delivery of mobile first and fully responsive websites through continued learning and personal growth. I've conceived, created and deployed multiple projects, I'm currently working on a local business website upgrade and seeking a permanent position as a web developer.

Previous to Web Development, I've successfully managed businesses in the UK, Australia and New Zealand. I also taught Scuba Diving in Asia for 3+ years during a career break.
